NOTES FROM FR. FRED

Dear Catholic Community at Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall:

In our lives, we have many hungers. One of our greatest hungers is the desire to be secure. We want a sense of well-being. We're not so different from the people of long ago. We come together today to be fed from the table of the Lord. Jesus God takes from whatever we have and multiplies it. He gives us Himself. He comes to satisfy our hunger. Our response states today: "The hand of the Lord feeds us and He answers all our needs." Often we all struggle on our journeys of faith. Saint Paul reminds us that there is nothing that can separate us from God's love that comes to us in Christ Jesus. Don't be afraid to ask God to nourish and sustain you on your road to conversion. Jesus Christ gives us today the food that sustains even the weariest among us.

Blessings in Christ,

Fr. Fred
