NOTES FROM FR. FRED

Dear Catholic Community:

Today we celebrate All Souls Day. We're invited to pray for all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. Today, let us especially pray for our loved ones. Whether on this side of life or the next, we are still joined together by our relationship in and through Christ. We hope for all of them that they may be in God's loving presence, in that place "where there is no suffering or pain but only light and joy and peace."

Blessings in Christ,
Fr. Fred

New Registration: Welcome to the Clark family

Designated Offerings: 22-23 November for the National Collection for Religious

Margaret Lepak, a parishioner in our Catholic Community, will be teaching an Adult Education Class on CHURCH HISTORY called "EPIC". Margaret has taught extensively in Catholic Adult Programs in other Catholic Communities. Her classes will be in addition to the Adult Ed that Fr. Fred will offer once a month. Margaret's class will begin this Sunday, 2 November at 1030 in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. Future classes will be determined with Margaret's and class input. PLAN TO ATTEND.

The next 4 Signs of a Dynamic Catholic, taught by Fr. Fred, is 9 November. Class meets from 1030 to 1130 in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. If you'd like to join and need a book, please see Fr. Fred.

Ministry Spotlight: SOME (So Others Might Eat)

SOME was founded in 1970 by Father Horace McKenna. It is an inter-faith, community-based outreach program that provides comprehensive services, such as meals, to Washington, D.C.'s poor and homeless. Volunteers from all of the Fort Myer congregations are welcome to participate in this program. For more information about the various services SOME provides, please visit their website at some.org. For volunteering information, contact Betsy Hendrix, Fort Myer Religious Program Coordinator, at (703) 696-6635.

Each day, SOME is restoring hope and dignity one person at a time.
