First Reading Acts 2:14, 22-33

None of the Scripture readings during the seven-week Easter Season are from the Old Testament. But the Acts of the Apostles, which is read every Sunday during Easter, frequently quotes Old Testament passages which the early Christians saw as fulfilled in Jesus. Today's reading gives part of Peter's sermon at the first Pentecost. Peter quotes from Psalm 16 which, like most of the Psalms, was popularly thought to have been written by David.

Second Reading 1 Peter 1:17-21

The Christians for whom the first letter of Peter was written were recent converts from paganism. They found themselves a small minority in pagan surroundings. Their neighbors and local authorities made life miserable for them. Today's passage offers encouragement by reminding them that Jesus died and rose for them.

Congratulations to the Confirmation Class of 2017!
