This Weekend’s Readings

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13

The prophet Jeremiah lived about 600 years before Christ. He prophesied that Israel, because of its faithfulness to God, would be defeated by Babylon. When this began to happen, many of his friends and neighbors denounced him as a traitor and turned on him.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-15

Today and for many Sundays hereafter, our second reading will be taken from Paul’s letter to the Romans. Paul’s letter to the Romans is his most detailed and important theological work. His purpose in this passage is not to teach about original sin, but to contrast Adam and Christ. From Adam we inherited a strong pull toward sin. From Christ (the “new Adam”) we received a gift that is incomparably strong: Divine Grace.

Attention Needlepointers

Seeking experienced stitchers to needlepoint cushions for the altar servers. Must be proficient in the “basketweave” stitch; and, must be willing and able to bring your cushion to completion by Christmas. There is a significant amount of work required for each cushion. All materials will be provided. If you want to make a lasting contribution to our chapel, please consider helping with this project. You will be able to put a dedication on the back of your cushion. Contact Sara DeCarlo at 703-271-4004 to make an appointment to discuss the effort involved, show a sample of your needlepoint work, and choose a design.

Knights of Columbus Theology on Tap

Ever wonder why bad things happen to good people? Come join us Monday, 26 June at Champps - Pentagon Row, beginning at 1900, for a lively discussion. Our new pastor, Fr John Barkemeyer, is the facilitator. All are welcome – eat, drink, discuss with us! Contact JBMHH Knights of Columbus Round table Coordinator Jeff Lepak at Jeffrey.lepak777@gmail.com or \(703\) 571-1056.

Lay Leadership

Congratulations to the newly elected Pastoral Advisory Council officers! The PAC’s new term begins 1 July. The new board will be installed at this Sunday’s Mass and will be blessed along with the members of the Finance Committee.

May all these members give witness to the presence of Christ in their lives by manifesting faith, hope, and love. ~ Amen

Mission Statement

We, the Catholic community of Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall, serve to advance the spiritual growth and resilience of all bonded by love of Christ, and shared experiences of service to country. Guided by our military chaplain, we actively participate in the living Body of Christ and persevere in our Savior’s mission. We are grateful stewards of the gifts we have received and eagerly use them to show our love for God and for one another. Jesus’ life and teachings direct our lives as Christian disciples.

We seek to light the way to Christ as a strong military Catholic Community of faith guided by the Holy Spirit and on fire with God’s love.

Core Value Statements

WE bond through shared service to our country.
 WE welcome all to join our community’s journey with Christ.
 WE grow continually to celebrate Christ through education, prayer, service, and fellowship.
 WE thrive through vibrant ministries that engage all within our [JBM-HH] community.
 WE walk with other JBM-HH faith communities to praise and serve God.
