This Weekend's Readings

First Reading: Job 7:1-4, 6-7

The Book of Job is a long parable which grapples with why bad things happen to good people. This question was especially crucial to people of that time because they didn't believe in life after death, and therefore one received reward or punishment in this life. Job has lost his children, his property and his health, and he lives at the city dump. In this passage, he gives an understandably pessimistic evaluation of life.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Paul's enemies frequently criticized him for the least little thing. At a time when most teachers received compensation from those they instructed, Paul was criticized because he refused financial support from the community. Because of this, they discredited him as not being a legitimate apostle. Today we hear his response.

Submit this to either SFC Reyes at pedro.n.reyes.mil@mail.mil or to SPC Ortiz at hector.g.ortiz3.mil@mail.mil. You can also submit your request via postal mail – send your information to SFC Reyes, to the mailing address printed at the top of this page. Please be sure to include your current mailing address and daytime phone number in your correspondence. A written statement of the total amount given in 2017 will be mailed to you. Cash donations are not tracked, even if they are placed in an envelope with your name on it.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FOOD DRIVE - - begins this weekend. Please pick up a blue bag after Mass and fill it with canned goods and other non-perishables. Bring filled bags back to the chapel next weekend, 10-11 February. Food donations go to Catholic Charities of Arlington to feed the needy of the entire diocese – where the majority of those in need are children and the elderly. Out of the millions of pounds of food donated, this equates to only 4 pounds of food per person for an entire year – this is how great of a need there is for food donations. Please be the miracle these people desperately need by multiplying their loaves and fishes. Yours in Christ. Jeff Lepak, Knight of Columbus Roundtable Coordinator.

RITE OF WELCOMING - - This Sunday, Jessica Lucas and Lacey Sizemore, will enter a new phase - the Catechumenate Stage - of their RCIA journey. During the Rite of Welcoming, Candidates declare their intentions to become members of the Catholic Church. Let us all continue to pray for Jessica and Lacey as they prepare to come into full communion with the Church and receive the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil.
