TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 3:9-16

Today we are reading from the third chapter of the book of Genesis. This chapter gives a highly symbolic account of the origin and effects of sin. Today's excerpt deals with the effects of sin.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:13--5:1

When Paul wrote the second letter to the Corinthians, he was probably in his fifties. In the life expectancy back then, only three in every 100 persons lived to be this old. In today's passage, Paul writes about the effects of aging and about death. But because he had experienced the risen Lord, he saw these problems in a different light.

WE SAY FAREWELL this weekend to our pastor, Fr. John Barkemeyer. He will celebrate his last Masses with us before he leaves for his next duty station. Please join us after Mass – both Saturday and Sunday - for a farewell reception in Fellowship Hall. Thank you, Fr. John, for leading our flock this past year and guiding us through the many changes we have experienced. We appreciate your dedication to our community.

MEET CHAPLAIN WHITEHEAD, OUR NEW PASTOR - - Chaplain Matthew Whitehead is a priest ordained in the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter: a diocese for Roman Catholics who were nurtured in the Anglican tradition or whose faith has been renewed by the Ordinariate's liturgy and evangelizing mission. Chaplain Whitehead has been an Army chaplain since 2010, with prior service as an Air Force Reserve chaplain. He was ordained on 31 May 2018, and will continue to serve as an Army chaplain at Arlington National Cemetery. He is married to Kate, they have six children and another due in August. Chaplain Whitehead began his pastoral duties on 4 June. Fr. Whitehead's first Mass at Memorial Chapel is next Saturday, 16 June.

Much like the Archdiocese for Military Services, the Ordinariate covers a broad geographical area that overlaps traditional diocesan boundaries. The Ordinariate's liturgy retains the eloquence of the Anglican tradition, while conforming to Catholic doctrinal, sacramental, and liturgical standards. Permission has been given on a case-by-case basis by the Pope for former Anglican priests who are married to be ordained Catholic priests for the Ordinariate.
