ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

Ezekiel was a major Old Testament prophet who ministered to the Jewish people exiled in Babylon. He often used parables and dramatizations to convey his message. In this passage, Ezekiel uses the image of trees to talk about the restoration of Israel and the fall of the Babylonian empire.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

We continue today to read from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians. In this section of the letter, Paul describes our life on earth as a pilgrimage home to heaven.

THANK YOU all for a warm welcome to the JBMHH Catholic Community! Over the past two years I have enjoyed getting to know many of you. We have served together at Arlington National Cemetery and enjoyed fellowship here at the chapel. I am inspired by the devotion I see in you all. Your dedicated and steadfast work is what keeps this community vibrant! It is a joy for me to be your pastor as we labor in this part of Christ's vineyard that has been entrusted to us. May our Lord Jesus be glorified as we work and worship together! ~Fr. Matt Whitehead
