

Italian Renaissance Collection Tour

National Gallery of Art
Washington, D.C.

Join us for a tour focusing on the artist's response to the culture and ideals of the Renaissance in Italy. It traces the rise of scientific inquiry, humanism, and new approaches to religious imagery through the art of masters like Giotto, Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael, and Titian.

February 20, 2016

11:45 Meet in the Gallery Rotunda (free coat check available)

12:00-1:00 Lunch at the Gallery's Cascade Café

1:00-1:15 Return to Rotunda

1:30-2:30 Tour

The tour is free; lunch is on your own. You can join us just for the tour even if you can't come to lunch.

Please RSVP to Tomas Dundzila at 703-507-3048 or tomasmya@gmail.com